REPUBLICAN POLITICAL TRICK DOOMS SOLDIER BONUS BILL; SENATE WILL NOT PASS IT

Delay in House Will Prevent Higher Body From Deliberating on Measure.

$30,000,000 JOKER SEEN.

Sales Tax and New Levy on War Profits To Be Discarded.

(Special From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—A political trick is seen in the plan to postpone consideration of the soldier bonus on the floor of the House until May 17. It is believed that the House Republican leaders, who influenced the caucus last night to postpone consideration of the bonus until two weeks before adjournment, hit upon this manner of disposing of the matter for the session.

The House will, according to information leaking through from the inner circles, pass the bonus bill, knowing full well that it will not have a chance to be passed through the Senate in the week or ten days which will intervene before recess for the national convention is taken June 1.

There is very definite opposition to the bonus on both sides of the aisle in the Senate and with the unlimited debate, no less than the deliberate manner in which the Senate considers large appropriation measures, there is hardly a chance for the bill to be enacted before recess.

The much advertised fight between advocates of a sales tax and sponsors of the scheme to make the war profiteers bear the burden of the soldiers' bonus was a flimsy when the Republicans of the House met in caucus last night. But there was a diversion which made those present forget about their anticipation of a keen scrap on the plan of taxation.

A neat little $300,000,000 "joker" hidden away in the tentative draft of the bonus bill by a coterie of Westerners who are pledged to their constituents to secure Government aid to "put over" huge reclamation projects in the Western States, was dragged into the light by Representatives Wood of Indiana, Little and White of Kansas, and others, and cuffed and kicked about in a way that brought blushes to the cheek of floor leader Frank L. Mondell, who had to bear the brunt of the attack.

When the Senegambian in the woodpile was exposed to view he was roughly treated in the presence of his friends, and not even Mondell had the temerity to come to his defense. As a result it may be safely predicted that the promise of certain Republicans in the House to the owners of Western lands to secure Government aid for reclamation projects under the guise of lending the soldiers a helping hand, will not be redeemed.

When the assault on the reclamation "joker" took place Mr. Mondell and his other sponsors sat silent.

The States which would have benefited by the expenditure of $300,000,000 of Government money on arid lands are Wyoming, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada, Washington, Oregon, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Utah. These States, some of the speakers showed, contributed an aggregate of only 176,000 soldiers to the war. New York alone sent 465,000 men into the service and there would not have been the slightest benefit to the Empire State had the reclamation scheme slipped through.

The genesis of the reclamation movement dates back to a conference

REPORT CARRANZA READY FOR FLIGHT AS REVOLT GAINS

Washington Hears Mexican Ruler May Reach This Country

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, May 1.—The Mexican Presidential elections set for July 4 have been postponed because of activities of Revolutionists, a Mexico City despatch to La Prensa, Mexican newspaper here, declared to-day.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Reports received here are to the effect that Carranza of Mexico is preparing to leave that country. Plans have been made to watch for his arrival should he reach the United States.

AQUA PRIETA, Sonora, May 1 (The Associated Press).—Mexico is honeycombed with revolution, and instead of the "steel ring" of soldiers President Carranza of Mexico announced would be put around Sonora, the first state to secede from his administration, the rebels have put a "steel ring" of revolutionary soldiers around Mexico City and in every state except one, Gen. A. I. Villarreal said here to-day in making public what he termed the accomplishments of the revolution in less than one month.

General Villarreal formerly was constitutional governor of Nuevo Leon and military governor of the state of Nuevo Leon. Tamaulipas and Coahuila. He was president of the Aguas Calientes convention which selected Carranza to be President of Mexico.

General Calles issued a statement which said, in part:

"The revolution is sweeping forward beyond all expectations. In less than ninety days Carranza will be deposed. Justice once more will prevail then in Mexico. The Carranza forces are revolting so rapidly there is no fighting. This shows the strength of justice of our movement."

"In every state there are reports of revolutionary movements of more or less degree," said General Villarreal.

"The revolution is gaining more rapidly than any previous one in the history of Mexico. It will succeed and in between sixty and ninety days Carranza's administration will have passed into history."

"The revolutionists have pledged themselves for what they believe just. Foreigners, alike with citizens of Mexico, are offered full protection and justice."

The revolutionists claim they have between 6,000 and 7,000 troops under their command in Chihuahua. These include infantry, cavalry and "defense societies" or home guards. They say they also have 100 machine guns and fourteen "cannon of different calibre."

ALL REDS WATCHED BY HEAVY GUARD; NO OUTBREAK HERE

City, State and Nation Ready for Any Uprising by the Radicals.

RENT STRIKES FAIL.

Homes of the Rich and Public Buildings Guarded—Two Arrests Made.

With every resource of the city, State and Federal authorities alert for the suppression of any attempt by communist agitators to start public disorder as part of the world-wide May Day demonstration to-day only two arrests of trifling importance were reported here, and neither of them was caused even remotely by actual public disturbance.

There was no symptom of the loud-predicted "rent strike" in which a destructive outbreak of tens of thousands of radical opponents of legal rent-paying was foretold, particularly in the Bronx.

Le B. S. Blumenthal, President of the Greater New York Tenants' League, who is in direct touch with more than 100,000 tenants in the city, informed The Evening World that the fact of the matter seems to be that Mr. Hilley of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering is without ammunition and in order to get his name in the paper is hunting ghosts and seeing possible "general strikes."

The usual May Day meetings of working men and women and the Socialist Party were held throughout the city. Reports from all of them as they gathered and listened to speeches showed they were orderly though enthusiastic.

The Socialist and I. W. W. meetings were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at various halls on the east side and on Seventh Avenue, and there are nine mass meetings scheduled for to-night. It was assumed that the speakers in these gatherings would, like those who addressed the daylight meetings, make much capital of the action of the Legislature in practically disfranchising the Socialist Party.

The meeting of the Socialist Labor Party at Cooper Union at 3 o'clock was sparsely attended. Only about 200 were in the hall when the meeting opened, though the programme promised orations by J. P. Quinn and others.

Though a meeting was widely advertised to be held in Rutgers Square Park and police had been detailed to keep order, no speakers or committee-men of the Socialist Party appeared and for the first time in many years the neighborhood lacked any sort of May Day diversion.

Two thousand attended a Socialist Party meeting at Sackman Street and Liberty Avenue, Brooklyn, and listened quietly to a speech in Russian and English by Alderman Ship-lacoff, and others speaking in Russian only. There was no advocacy of violence but much emphasis on the right of the Socialists to be represented at Albany.

The alarming notices sent out from Washington of a Communist programme of violence to be directed personally against prominent antagonists of revolutionary tendencies was not borne out by any happening in this city or its suburbs.

PLACARDS ADVOCATE STRIKE TO ASSERT LABOR RIGHTS.

Placards advocating a general strike to "assert the strength and the rights of labor" were generally posted in the tenement districts overnight, in spite of the vigilance of the police, and there was a successful distribution of handbills of similar purpose in letter boxes, vestibules and under stoop doors.

One of the two arrests was that of Frederick Hammer, a machinist, of No. 313 West 29th Street, who said he was born in Dutch Kills, N. Y.

ATLANTIC FLEET IN HUDSON; 15,000 SAILORS WELCOMED

Gobs Return From Winter
Cruise and Will Get Shore
Leave at Once.

50 WARSHIPS IN LINE

Times Square Hears Bands
Play While Still in Bay
Over Wireless Phone

The great Atlantic fleet of fifty warships is lying at anchor off Riverside Park in the Hudson. The dreadnoughts and superdreadnoughts, battleships, cruisers and destroyers began passing the Battery shortly after 11 o'clock this morning. Because of the unfavorable weather only a small crowd lined the sea wall.

While the armada was not unheralded, not a gun from any of the forts boomed out a welcome shot. From the forts in the Narrows the intelligence was received that the salute to the fleet would come from Fort Jay on Governors Island. At Fort Jay it was said that no orders to fire a salute had been received.

The procession passing the Battery was headed by Destroyers No. 239 and 280, over which hovered two airplanes. Eight dreadnoughts followed in a single line, the battleship Pennsylvania, Admiral Wilson's flagship, being fourth.

It was 12 o'clock New York time when the Pennsylvania dropped her mudhook off 96th Street, but it was 11 o'clock on board ship, the fact being made known to those on shore by six bells being sounded on board. Secretary Daniels was aboard the Pennsylvania with Admiral Wilson.

Rear Admiral Glennon, commander of the Third Naval District, accompanied by his aide, Lieut. Commander Langworthy, went out to the Pennsylvania in his barge and brought the Secretary ashore.

On board the ships of the fleet are 15,000 sailors, who will take turns at their holiday ashore.

Times Square knew of the arrival of the fleet before it passed the Battery. The movements of the ships were reported by wireless telephone to the radio tower in Times Square and then conveyed to the great crowd in the square through an amplifier.

Then the crowd was treated to a concert by the bands on the various vessels of the fleet. There were bursts of jazz which set feet to moving on the sidewalks and then the strains of the "Swanee River."

It had been announced that Secretary Daniels would deliver an address, which would come by wireless telephone, but when he began to speak there was so much interference from the other ships as well as local disturbances that only a word or two was audible.

The flagship and the main body of the fleet had been preceded earlier in the morning by the Rochester, headlined fifteen destroyers, the Black Hawk, with four mine layers, the Bridge, the ammunition ship. The Bridge turned out and anchored in Gravesend Bay in the safety area established for ships bearing explosives.

The Rochester flies the flag of Admiral Plunkett, the naval gunner officer who took the big naval guns to France. Formerly she was the Saratoga, and before that the New York, flagship of Admiral Sampson at the battle of Santiago. The Black Hawk is a converted merchant vessel. Her commander, Admiral Strauss, is the man who was at the head of the line laying operations in the North Sea.

For the last four months the fleet has been engaged in practice off Guantanamo, Cuba. It will leave New York the morning of May 17 for Hampton Roads.

Each day of the fleet's stay in the river, shore liberty will be granted 4,000 men. Scores of entertainments have been arranged for them by the Salvation Army, Y. M. C. A., Navy Club, New York Community Service and other organizations.

The public will be permitted to visit the vessels at anchor.

MISSING GIRL HELD FOR RANSOM, SAYS NOTE TO FATHER

HENRIETTA BULTE
Parent of Fifteen-Year-Old Who Vanished on Way to Bank Declares He Will Pay.

Louis Bulte, No. 115 East 116th Street, received an anonymous letter this morning saying that his fifteen-year-old daughter, Henrietta, is being held for ransom.

She disappeared on the Monday after Easter when she started for the Harlem Bank to deposit $250 which her father had just given her as a present. The Missing Persons Bureau has worked in vain on the case, getting no clue until the letter to-day, which follows:

"Your daughter, Henrietta, is safe and held for ransom. Advise in next Monday's Globe if you wish to ransom her."

Mr. Bulte, a wealthy cigar dealer, said he did wish to ransom her and would publish the announcement as required.

HIDES FROM BROKER AND SEEKS DIVORCE

John R. Bowie of New York Served
With Summons as He Reaches Chicago.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CHICAGO, May 1.—Mrs. Edna M. Bowie and her daughter, Mary Frances, six years old, are in hiding here from the husband and father, John R. Bowie, a New York stock broker. Mrs. Bowie has not even revealed her address to her attorney, Warwick A. Shaw, supplying him only with her telephone number, that he might communicate with her relatives in a suit for divorce filed Thursday.

From her hiding place Mrs. Bowie managed to keep tabs on her husband and fled the suit when he passed through this city. A deputy sheriff served the summons on a sleek, round-faced, aristocratic looking man, nattily dressed and carrying a cane.

Mrs. Bowie, who asks for alimony, says her husband has a large income and personal property worth at least $24,000. She charges excessive use of intoxicants and with beating her and threatening to kill her. Bowie, it is said, represented large interests in Washington during the war.

50,000 BOYS SING AS THEY MARCH IN FIFTH AVE. PARADE

Loyalty Procession, Opening
Boys' Week, Proves Fine Spectacle.

CHEERED BY CROWDS.

Many Notables in Reviewing Stand—Juvenile Bands
Make a Hit.

Fifty thousand New York boys, Americans all, sang as they marched down Fifth Avenue this afternoon from Sixty-ninth Street to the Washington Arch with bands a-playing, colors a-flying and a multitude applauding, to inaugurate what the International Rotary Club has designated as Boys' Week.

No finer spectacle has been seen in the Avenue this year. The Loyalty Parade, as its sponsors called it, was under the general direction of Supl. William Lewis Butcher of the News-boys' Home, Chairman of the Boys' Week Committee. In the reviewing stand at Madison Square places were reserved for Governor Smith, Mayor Hylan, Archbishop Hayes, President Anning S. Pratt and his associates of the Board of Education, members of the Board of Aldermen, the Senate and the Assembly.

Led by a platoon of mounted police and headed by General George W. Wingate as Chief Marshal—at eighty-two the General spurred the offer of a mount and said he'd "walk with the other boys"—the parade moved southward at 2 o'clock sharp. Well up at the head of the procession was a Rotary Club float, depicting "Phases of Boys' Week."

One float of many which inspired admiration was manned by three troops of Boy Scouts from Kennedy House in West 43d Street. The boys in the picture on the front of the float exemplified "Gang Law" and were engaged in a game of craps. The other side of the picture was "Scout Law," revealed an outfit of "regulars" seated around a practical camp fire in front of a tent.

Many of the school groups turned in on overalls and wore overalls caps of red, white and blue paper. Most of the other lads wore white shirtwaists and black pants. Many were bareheaded. Nearly every unit carried a banner of some kind. "We Are Going to Make Good Citizens," the banners said, or "We Are Going to Get an Education," or "Education Means Success."

The 69th and 71st Infantry Regiments of the National Guard occupied positions of honor at the head of the line, with members of the Boys' Week Committee and members of the Boys' Work Committee of the Rotary Club. Then there were more floats before the first eight divisions of boys, boys, boys came along.

JOHNSON ORDERED BY COURT TO PUT UP $50,000 BEFORE JERSEY RECOUNT BEGINS

California Senator's Managers Consider Appeal to Supporters for Funds to Meet the Conditions Laid Down by Chief Justice Gummere.

Notice was served to-day on United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California that he can have a recount of the votes cast last Tuesday in New Jersey's preferential primary if he will post a certified check for $50,000 with Secretary of State Martin at Trenton and be prepared to pay as much more if the recount goes against him.

POLITE GOLFER TELLS WOES IN "AGONY" COLUMN

"Individual With Handicap of 18 and Large Voice" Is Warned to Observe Course Etiquette.

LONDON, May 1.
A SCOTCH golf enthusiast who was too polite to make a face-to-face protest against another player's objectionable manners, but too aggrieved to remain silent, has inserted this advertisement in the "agony column" of several London newspapers:

"Would the individual with the handicap of eighteen and the large voice who hacks his way round a certain suburban course reflect that his golfing adventures do not interest other members to the extent he would think?"

UKRAINIANS SEEK TERMS WITH POLES

Offer to Fight With Them in Driving Out the Russian Bolsheviks.

LONDON, May 1.—General Petura, Ukrainian leader, has issued a manifesto offering to sign a military convention with Poland under terms of which the Ukrainians will fight with the Poles until the Russian Bolsheviks are defeated, a Warsaw despatch to-day said.

After the Bolsheviks have been driven from Ukraine the Poles are to withdraw.

Russian Bolshevik forces occupied Baku, an important port on the western coast of the Caspian Sea and the centre of a very important petroleum field, on April 28. It was officially announced this morning.

VLADIVOSTOK, April 3.—Severe fighting is in progress at Chita, Transbaikalia, between the forces of General Voitzkovsky, the sole remnant of Admiral Kolchak's Army in Transbaikalia and the opposing Bolshevik faction, according to reports from a Russian source. The Japanese are declared to be supporting General Voitzkovsky.

AUTOS KILLED 50 IN APRIL.

Nineteen of Them Children—Total in State Was Eighty-two.

According to a report of the National Highway Protective Society, issued to-day, in the State of New York during April eighty-two persons were killed by automobiles, five by trolleys and six by wagons.

In the city of New York in April fifty persons were killed by automobiles, nineteen of them children under sixteen. Trolleys caused the death of four and wagons six.

60 SOVIETS IN NEW YORK

100,000 Extreme Radicals Are Native Born, Secret Service Says.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—At least 100,000 native Americans hold membership in radical societies which planned demonstrations to-day throughout the United States, according to investigations of Justice Department secret service agents. In New York alone, more than sixty soviet have been organized.

The Senator was given five days within which to put up or withdraw. His supporters said that with nine of New Jersey's 23 delegates already credited to him, he is asked to risk a small fortune on the chance of getting a few more.

If the recount should go against him the California Senator must bear the entire expense, estimated at $100,000.

At the Hotel Pennsylvania Johnson's assistant Eastern manager, "Al" Joy, said:

"If we can raise the money we probably will go ahead with the recount, but at first blush it is a formidable proposition. We may resort to a hurried appeal to Johnson supporters in the East to give what they can to a recount fund. But before anything is decided upon we shall take the matter up with the Senator."

The decision came in the form of an order handed down at Newark by Chief Justice Gummere of the New Jersey Supreme Court, who last night took under advisement a motion by Harry Kalisch, chief counsel for Senator Johnson in New Jersey.

Chief Justice Gummere also ordered that Gen. Wood be notified by mail or in person, and designated days and dates for counting the ballots again in public.

Attorney Kalisch was not prepared to say whether the Johnson people would post the $50,000 forfeit. Immediately following the announcement Kalisch left Newark for a conference in Manhattan with Angus McQueen, the Washington newspaper correspondent in charge of the Johnson campaign in the East.

The recount, if it takes place, will be the first ever held covering the entire State.

COURT SAYS RECOUNT MUST COVER THE ENTIRE STATE.

Announcing his decision the Chief Justice made it clear that the Johnson supporters, if they start, must proceed with a full recount. If, he said, the recount of a few counties, for example, should show a shift in Senator Johnson's favor large enough to overcome General Wood's apparent lead, this will be no excuse for stopping the count and claiming the State. In such a situation, all and not merely a few counties must be gone over.

On the other hand, Chief Justice Gummere said, if the Johnsons find that the count is going against them they may abandon it at any time and so save the expense of a larger count.

Under the New Jersey law the candidate who obtains a recount must bear the burden of its cost. If it is changed—in the present case if Johnson should be found to be the winner—the State pays the bill and the candidate gets his money back.

DATES SET FOR RECOUNT IN ALL THE COUNTIES.

The order of the court fixed the dates for the recount by counties as follows:

May 10—Essex, Newark, Morris,
